THE REINSTATEMENT OF THE DELPHIC GAMES

Festival of The Delphic Games, 2005

FEES:

Fees include accommodations, breakfast and dinner daily; tuition for all workshops, performances, lectures, one site admission, all local ground transportation, 2 Gala events, transfers to and from Athens airport. The Town of Delphi and its Mayor, the Honorable Panagiotis Kaltsis, have secured a range of accommodations at a generous subsidy for program participants that include all tips and taxes. Rates are based on double occupancy.

While the Isadora Duncan International Institute, Inc. (IDII) will make every possible effort to ensure the comfort of Festival participants, the IDII is not responsible for changing rooms or cancelling reservations once travel has commenced.

TRANSPORTATION TO ATHENS:

Participants must arrange their own flights or transportation to Athens International (Eleftherios Venizelo) Airport, from which 2 buses will depart to Delphi in the afternoon at 12:30 PM and 3:30 PM on Saturday, June 4th. At the completion of the Festival buses returning to Athens from Delphi will leave at 6:00 AM and 10:00 AM on Sunday, June 12th to ensure ample time to prepare for transatlantic flights. Flights from the US often originate one day prior to arrival. Airlines with direct flights to Athens from NYC include Delta and Olympic Airways.

TRAVEL INSURANCE:

We recommend travel insurance to prevent losses necessitated by sudden cancellation. For your convenience, insurance forms will be sent upon registration. Alternately, you can secure insurance online through a link on our website at www.idii.org/delphicgames.html.

FACULTY, SCHEDULE & ITINERARY:

All rights are reserved by the Festival Directors to make faculty substitutions and modify the schedule and itinerary as needed.
